ROCKS

April 19 – The frogs are croaking a merry song in the nearby ponds, as well as the whippoorwill's telling the farmers it's time to plant corn.
The Quartet furnished special music for the Revival at Rustburg Church on Tuesday night.
A number from here went to Central Church on Wednesday night to hear Dr. Carl A. Collins, who was holding a Revival there.
The special music on Wednesday at Central was furnished by the Glenn McIntosh family and Joanne, Patricia and Barry Elder with Mrs. W. H. Elder at the piano.
Mrs. Ruby Almond went to see a doctor at Appomattox Wednesday morning. Mrs. Lloyd Richardson took her and Mrs. Clarence Richardson accompanied them.
John Kent Hamilton was operated on Friday morning at Va. Baptist Hospital.
Mr and Mrs Robert Roach went to Farmville Friday morning.
Everyone was glad to know Lewis Dickerson returned home Sunday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Larney of Connecticut will arrive today to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore.
A large crowd attended the shower for Zandra Crain Saturday night. She received many nice gifts.
The Quartet furnished special music for the revival at Spout Spring Church on Sunday night.
Youth Sunday passed off very fine Sunday.
Mr. W. C. Dudley of Pamplin will be at Rocks Sunday morning at the close of the Sunday School hour to explain the importance of a Supt. of Missions for the association.

Lucky Catch Sunday!

Sixteen striped bass made a "nice catch" Sunday for Charles and Bradley Baldwin. The bass weighed a total of 115 pounds and were caught at Buggs Island by these fishermen who reportedly are good deer hunters, too.

Winners

In the recently held Varsity Club Variety Show at Appomattox County High School the "Low Creek Chain" won first place. Members of the "Chain" include Joe Vaughan, E. W. Paulette, B. B. Hubbard, John Smith with Melanie Folks at the piano.
Second place went to the Beta Club singers and third place was a tie between Julia Hesson at the piano and Fontaine Johnson, singer.

UDC Met At Rustburg

The Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. James H. Hancock, Rustburg. Co-hostesses were the president, Mrs A. J. Zastrow, Mrs. Jeannette Austin and Mrs. Vernell Reynolds.
Mrs. Clifford Plunkett gave the program on "Memorial Day." Mrs. Hancock led the pledge to the U. S. Flag and saluted the Confederate flag. Mrs. Tilden Lee read the ritual. Mrs. Zastrow read letters from several District UDC members thanking the Appomattox members for the enjoyable spring conference held in Appomattox, April 10.
The chapter voted to send $10.00 to the Cent. Va. Speech and Hearing Clinic.
The members were taken on a tour of the Hancock flower garden. Refreshments were served in the dining room where a centerpiece of lighted candles and spring flowers provided the focal point for a bountiful offering of ham biscuits, orange blossoms cakes, fruit cake, chips and dip, peanut butter sticks and mints. Coffee and fruit punch were served to the sixteen members and guests.
